Sail- ing Time's deep You sow what you reap
Sail- ing time's deep You sow what you reap

Prom- i- ses you can- not keep Time goes by Prom- i- ses you can- not keep Your face looked out Prom- i- ses you can- not keep I crad- led you So Prom- i- ses you can- not keep You be- trayed me

So slow- ly As we drift through the end- less sky Si- lent- ly As we fell through the end- less sky You ge- ent- ly As we fell through the end- less sky Our Cru- el- ly As we fell through the end- less sky But

Years a- go when I was so young You were my star; the prom- ised me as you came a- board You would al- ways tar- get came, a warm blue world I paused near- by; my how can you go? I love you so You prom- ised, on- ly one Ac- ross the void you had me made To be with me Mind of your mind, soul of your soul wings were furled You want- ed to go, leav- ing me here De-that you know You will stay safe for me For car- ry you Sai- ling Time's deep And you will weep In a- cord ceiv- ing- ly ev- er- more

Prom- is- ing that I will keep you here

Al- ways with me As I drift through The end- less sky
